

English

- To plan and write a non-chronological report based on prior research and reading.
- To plan and write a persuasive letter, making careful language choices to persuade.
- Use a range of writing techniques such as alliteration, fronted adverbials and speech.
- To read a range of fiction and non-fiction texts and to be able to answer comprehension questions about them.

Art & Design

- To observe and comment on the work of Andy Goldsworthy
- To choose elements of nature to create art.
- Using colours of winter and spring to create artwork.

Computing

- Using online platforms to access schoolwork and submit completed work.
- Linking instructions together to make a simple algorithm.
- Debugging and correctly ordering algorithms.

Mathematics

- Learning ways of calculating division and multiplication
- Observing the commutative links between multiplication and division
- Finding information from tables, charts and graphs
- Collating information to create tables, charts and graphs
- Identifying properties of simple 3d shapes
- Classifying 2d and 3d shapes

Design & Technology

- Observing existing sculptures and analysing the chosen materials.
- Combining natural elements to make a sculpture.

Geography

- Looking at similarities and differences between cities, towns and villages of the UK.
- Identifying different regions of the UK.

Science

- Identify the different parts of a plant and the jobs they do.
- Chronicle the life cycle of a plant.
- Think about what plants need to grow and be healthy.

History

- Why did the Anglo-Saxons and Scots invade?
When did these events happen?
- When and why did the Romans leave Britain?

Modern

Languages

- Revise common French greetings and pleasantries.
- Make simple statements about yourself (name, age etc.)

Music

Listen to a range of music and describe whether you like it, it's impact on you and the way it makes you feel.

Physical

Education

- Online Yoga lessons
- Joe Wicks' sessions

Religious

Education (Durham)

- Learning about what Christians believe about 'Salvation.'
- Read bible stories from the New Testament
- Discuss events and ideas about Jesus' death and the tradition of Easter.