Re: Mrs Howes-Jones

I am writing to let you know that Mrs Howes-Jones has applied and been successfully appointed as the permanent Deputy Head Teacher at Bishop Ian Ramsey CofE Primary School in Medomsley.

This is a fantastic career progression position for Mrs Howes-Jones and I am sure you will join me in wishing her the very best of luck in her new post. We will continue to work with Mrs Howes-Jones as her new school are also members of the Durham and Newcastle Diocesan Learning Trust and this link will allow the two schools in the MAT to work more closely together.

Mrs Howes-Jones has been at Stanhope for many years and she will be a huge miss to the children and the team. She will be visiting Stanhope a couple times during the summer term before the summer holidays so she will have an opportunity to say goodbye to everyone.

On a personal note, Mrs Howes-Jones has been one of the most professional teachers I have had the good fortune to work with and has been a tremendous personal support to me and I will miss her a huge amount. Our loss is Bishop Ian Ramsey's gain and they are very lucky to have her.

If anyone would like to drop off cards, gifts or messages please send them to the school office or via the collection box before Friday 8th July 2022.

We will be advertising internally for 2 Assistant Head Teachers after the half term break and more information regarding our new structure will be shared with parents then.

Yours sincerely
Mrs D Cross
