Dear Parent/Carer

Re: Winter Illnesses and returning to school

Please find attached guidance issued by the UK Health Security Agency regarding Winter Illnesses. As we return to school, we have very low levels of sickness absence but obviously this can change quite rapidly and I would ask parents and carers to follow the guidance outlined.

The advice has remained unchanged since the guidance was shared in October and again in December. Thank you for your understanding and support in keeping children who are unwell off school. Similarly, our team have been advised not to come into work if they are unwell in an attempt to protect the rest of the team and keep the school open.

Yours sincerely

Mrs D Cross
